HOPE AND HEALING MINISTRIES® UPDATE BY MARIA J. BAIN

The foundation of Hope and Healing Ministries® (HHM) has been deeply rooted in offering Jesus' healing, mercy, compassion and love to women and men who suffer from abortion and sexual abuse. Although our program is successful there is still a void in reaching many who experience various other forms of grief. In response to this great need I am in the process of developing a Catholic retreat, Compassion of Christ open to all denominations with the assistance of several psychologists, art therapists, priests, and lay volunteers. Bishop Amos has approved the development of this retreat for the Diocese of Davenport.

In the past six years I have received many letters, phone calls and emails asking me if there was anything I could do to provide healing for soldiers, divorce, domestic abuse, and addictions. There is an immense need to care for the spiritually hungry and dying. The mission of HHM is to be a beacon of light reflecting the heart of God to those who seek him in the darkness of human suffering and sin.

As I work on the development of Compassion of Christ I will no longer facilitate Rachel's Vineyard Retreats. A trained volunteer, Kris Gaspari is the new coordinator for the state of Iowa. Kris is a former participant of Rachel's Vineyard and is now facilitating all the Iowa retreats. Through her own healing and restoration she is called to serve others. She enjoys photography and volunteering at her parish. Kris resides in Ankeny with her husband John and their three children. For further information about Rachel's Vineyard Retreats or to donate please call Kris directly at 515-306-7838 or email krisgaspari@mac.com.

Hope and Healing Ministries is co-sponsoring a Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreat for spiritual and emotional healing after abortion. The retreat will be held in the Des Moines area September 17-19. The confidential, supportive retreat is for anyone hurting inside after abortion. For more information on attending, to donate, or volunteer please call Kris Gaspari, the new coordinator of Rachel's Vineyard Iowa at 515-306-7838, or email krisgaspari@mac.com. Scholarships are available. You can also visit www.rachelsvineyard.org, or call a national toll-free hotline at 1-877-896-HOPE.

To contact Maria call 563-322-1645, 319-530-2597 or email hopeandhealingtoday@gmail.com.

“Celebrating the Canticle at The Canticle” – An evening with planetary poets

Thursday, August 5, 4:00 – 8:00 p.m.

The Canticle, the home of the Clinton Franciscans, is named for “The Canticle of Creation,” a mystical poem / song written by St. Francis of Assisi in the early 13th century. “Celebrating the Canticle” is an evening with Francis and contemporary poets such as Wendell Berry and Mary Oliver whose great works are dedicated to preservation of the planet. “‘The Canticle’ sings of the whole of creation as a cosmic incarnation,” says Sister Mary Smith, who will lead the discussion. “This genre of poetry offers us a vision of ‘reconciled space.’ We will explore the power of poetry to awaken us to a greater sense of our oneness with all creation and thereby transform our choices and patterns of daily life.”

Remembering Nagasaki - Reverencing the past and recognizing the urgency for a nuclear-free future

Monday, August 9, 7:00 p.m., The Canticle, Clinton

The Center for Active Nonviolence will screen the film, “Nuclear Tipping Point,” and continue the discussion of “Getting to Zero” – the need to eliminate nuclear weapons – based on the guidelines presented by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops. In 2005, the Clinton Franciscans took a corporate public stand against all use or production of nuclear weapons. The issue has been a priority of the Center’s advocacy work ever since.

FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES – THE THIRD EDITION OF THE ROMAN MISSAL

Starting in November of this year, our diocese will begin a year-long process of preparing for the implementation of the third edition of the Roman Missal on the First Sunday of Advent: November 27, 2011. As our blueprint, we will be using the USCCB's Parish Guide to Implementing the Roman Missal, Third Edition.

A day-and-a-half have been added to the November clergy gathering to go over the implementation process, review resources for parish use, and take a look at the theology and spirituality of the new Missal. A copy of the Parish Guide will be given to the priests (and PLAs) in attendance.

Among the first steps in the implementation process is for each parish to assemble an "implementation committee." While this might be the liturgical commission of the parish, it may be better to gather a different group for this purpose—since the commission will still have to attend to its regular responsibilities. Members of the implementation committee could include some members of the liturgy commission, musicians, catechists, school teachers, deacons, and others in parish leadership.

Schools not attached to a parish and religious communities are also encouraged to assemble their own committee and take part in the diocese's implementation process.

In January and February, we will be hosting a series of workshop around the diocese for members of these implementation committees and for other lay liturgical leaders. The focus of these workshops is to "train the trainers" for doing the necessary formation in their parishes. The dates and locations of these workshops are as follows:

January 15, 2011	St. Paul the Apostle, Davenport	(Davenport Deanery)
January 22, 2011	Sacred Heart, Newton	(Grinnell Deanery)
January 29, 2011	St. Patrick, Iowa City	(Iowa City Deanery)
February 5, 2011	St. Alphonsus, Mt. Pleasant	(Keokuk Deanery)
February 19, 2011	St. Joseph, DeWitt	(Clinton Deanery)
February 26, 2011	St. Patrick, Ottumwa	(Ottumwa Deanery)

In May, we will run two additional workshops for those who lead music ministry in their parishes (choir and music directors, keyboardists, cantors).

May 7, 2011	St. Mary, Pella
May 21, 2011	St. Mathias, Muscatine

At this point, in order to help cover the cost of lunch and refreshments, we are estimating that the cost to attend one of the deanery or musician workshops will be $10.00. We will post registration forms on the website as soon as all the details are worked out.

The June Clergy Institute and Faith Formation Institute will also be devoted to the new Missal, and we will have a special workshop for deacons on June 25. More details will follow as they become available.

As parishes undertake the formation of their own liturgical ministers and parish members the Office of Liturgy and Diocesan Liturgical Commission are available to assist in any way that we can.
