

FROM BISHOP AMOS

October 2011

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Three years ago I appointed a Diocesan Planning Commission as an advisory group as we embarked on the development of a strategic plan for the future of the Diocese in the next decade.

The Commission presented the grassroots plans from all the local area planning groups to me on Sunday, October 16, 2011 at a joint meeting of the Diocesan Pastoral Council and Presbyteral Council. The plans included collaborative work done by the Commission, clergy, lay leadership and laity. The amount of prayerful and serious effort that went into the diocesan planning is impressive, and I thank everyone who has worked on this process.

The plans will be important tools for the Priests' Personnel Board as they recommend the placement of priests in the future. They will be helpful to parishes as they plan for their future as well and for the placement of deacons as a new class is ordained.

Which plans will be used first is not yet known. When we look at priests retiring, dying or moving to new assignments the needs of our parishes must be looked at, and personnel will be put where they can best meet needs.

These plans do not need to wait for "something to happen" before parts of them are put into place. It will be important for the clergy, parish leadership and laity to renew these plans regularly. We must continue to work collaboratively. I encourage all of us to start this as soon as possible.

We are all called to be disciples by our baptism. Some are called to leadership as both ordained and lay ministers. Let us pray for one another, for our diocese and for our many faith-filled leaders.

Again, a sincere thank you for all your efforts.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Rev. Martin Amos
Bishop of Davenport

The Word among Us (Benet House Retreat Center): Read, reflect, pray and share with other committed Christians seeking to grow in reflecting on the challenges of Scripture for everyday life. We share a new book each month. Presenter: Sr. Charlotte Sonnevile, OSB; Mondays each month, Nov. 7 & 21; Fee: $5/session + cost of books or $50 for series + cost of books.

Centering Prayer (Benet House Retreat Center): Come and join the Centering Prayer group. This prayer method provides a way to foster a deep relationship with God. Leader: Sr. Catherine Cleary, OSB; Wednesdays, 1-2 pm.

Spirituality of Work (Benet House Retreat Center): Reflection on the “Spirituality of Work” helps us better understand the role and importance of work in our lives. Work both expresses and shapes us – by the way we do it, the environment and culture of the workplace and the people with whom we work. Traditional wisdom and contemporary concerns including the ‘ora et labora’ of the monastic tradition and Pope John Paul’s encyclical “On Human Work” will be explored. Presenter: Sr. Helen Carey, OSB, PhD in Philosophy; Mon. Nov. 14, 7-9 pm; Free Will Offering. To register, contact Sr. Jackie Walsh at (309) 283-2108 or retreats@smmsisters.org.

Day of Thanksgiving: “The Power of Giving Thanks” (Benet House Retreat Center): Giving thanks to God is more than a Biblical mandate; it is one of God’s greatest gifts. When we give thanks, powerful spiritual and psychic forces are released, which can be released only in thanksgiving. This retreat will gently explore the why, how-to and impact of giving thanks. It will include prayer, Lectio Divina, instruction and small group discussion. Participants will develop their own personal prayer of thanksgiving. Presenter: Hal Green, PhD, is an author, columnist, former pastor, therapist, and a certified teacher of Centering Prayer. Wed. Nov. 16, 9 am-3 pm; Fee: $30 (incl. lunch). To register, contact Sr. Jackie Walsh at (309) 283-2108 or retreats@smmsisters.org.

SISTERS OF ST. FRANCIS, CLINTON

For more information, call 563-242-7611 or visit www.clintonfranciscans.com.

Training in Active Nonviolence by the Michigan Peace Team: On Nov. 12 Rev. Peter Dougherty, founder of Michigan Peace Team, will lead a day-long nonviolence training workshop. The workshop begins at 8:30 a.m. with a continental breakfast and concludes at 5:00 p.m. He will also offer a public presentation on Saturday evening at 7:00 pm. entitled: “Blueprint for a Nonviolent World.” Registration for the day-long workshop is limited to 25 persons. To register call 563-242-7611, or email office@clintonfranciscans.com. A donation is requested to cover the cost of the program and the meals provided.

Wearing Clothes without Wearing out the Planet: Nov. 13, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. Much of the clothing we purchase every year carries hidden environmental and social costs. Another issue is that clothing sold in the United States is often produced in the developing world, in factories with poor wages and working conditions. Synthetic fibers are derived from nonrenewable petroleum and the manufacturing process can consume a lot of water and energy while generating global warming pollution. Dyes and coatings, too, can generate pollution in their production and application. Learn ways to extend the life of the clothing you do purchase: up-cycling, buying pre-owned clothing, using old clothing to insulate your home, buying local and choosing well-made items that fit well and will survive years of wear (and changing fashion trends). Free and open to the public.

Both programs will be held at The Canticle, home of the Sisters of St. Francis, 841-13th Ave. No., Clinton.

Workshops for Parish Leaders and Parishioners

as presented by Dr. Richard McCorry

Sunday, November 20

St. Patrick Church, Iowa City

4330 St. Patrick Drive

An opportunity as parishes continue their planning process.

Creating More Welcoming Parishes: 1-4 p.m.

Hospitality is manifested in an open and welcoming spirit, a willingness to drop what we are doing and receive the other person when they need us. This is a process, not an event. In 2008, the Emerging Models of Pastoral Leadership Project identified one of the key marks of excellent parishes is that they are welcoming communities. At the same time, pastoral leaders surveyed by The Project reported that this mark of excellence was the one at which they were least successful. This workshop will support pastoral leaders in developing a comprehensive program for creating more welcoming parishes.

Spirituality During Times of Change: 5-8 p.m.

Change is accelerating for both the church and society at breathtaking speed. This presents distinct challenges as well as wonderful opportunities for those who employ a positive spirituality. Many people have a basic lack of understanding of the ever changing nature of life and of our faith tradition, which many of the prophets both heralded and championed. Some operate out of their fear that change will adversely affect their faith life. This session will offer some reflections and provide some spiritual "lifelines" to hold onto while being buffeted by the "winds of change" in this very engaging workshop.

Optional Light Supper: 4-5 p.m. ($7.00 payable at the door)

Dr. Richard McCorry is a nationally renowned presenter and the author of "Dancing with Change, A Spiritual Response to Changes in the Church," published in 2004 and "Company's Coming, A Spiritual Process for Creating More Welcoming Parishes," published in 2008. He is the founder of Embracing Change, a Church change management consulting firm. Dr. McCorry travels the country, working with parishes and dioceses, helping them to develop spiritual approaches to changes in the church. Marriage Moments & Parenting Pointers

NOVEMBER - 2011

I offer you these tidbits of wisdom as prayer prompts to remind you (and your constituents) of the sacredness of marriage vows and the value of every child. The commitment to love a spouse forever, and the generous gift of life parents offer a child are indeed spiritual undertakings and cannot be done alone. May the God of Love be with you and your work.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

441. Nov. 7: "Resplendent and unfading is Wisdom." (Wisdom 6:12) What's the wisest thing you've done so far in your life (other than marrying your beloved)? How is your spouse wise?

442. Nov. 14: Want to get a "quiet spouse" to open up? Try going through old photos together or asking about his/her favorites (like a school memory, a relative, a children's story, childhood friends...)

443. Nov. 21: Whether or not you travel over Thanksgiving, remember those who can't afford a plane ticket, gas, or even a pair of shoes, or worse - don't have a loved one with whom to share the day. Our bounty is not deserved, but a gift. Give some of it away.

444. Nov. 28: "Let there be spaces in your togetherness." (Kahlil Gibran) As wonderful as togetherness is, where do you go to get some space just for yourself? Do you have a special time, place, or hobby that regenerates your spirit?

PARENTING POINTERS

440. Nov. 4: "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife." (Mt 1:20) As the foster father of Jesus, Joseph raised a child not of his own blood line. November is Adoption Month. Might this be a call to you? Consider adoption, foster parenting, or simply mentoring an at risk child.

441. Nov. 11: Nov. 11 is 11-11-'11. Perhaps this coincidence of numbers can remind you of the mystery of how each child can be #1 in your heart, no matter how many you have. For fun, perhaps give your child 11 compliments, hugs, stickers, or M&Ms.

442. Nov. 18: With Thanksgiving approaching, consider how the president pardons a turkey. Is there a relative you need to pardon or make peace with? Perhaps the turkey is you. Forgive yourself.

443. Nov. 25: The day after Thanksgiving offers us some free time - especially if leftovers free up cooking time. How will you use your time today? Hectic shopping? Nurturing family ties? Missing someone dear? Relaxing? Make family your priority.
