You easily provide a seamless direct link from your parish website to the USCCB website.

Marriage Moments & Parenting Pointers November 2013

I offer you these tidbits of wisdom as prayer prompts to remind you (and your constituents) of the sacredness of marriage vows and the value of every child. The commitment to love a spouse forever, and the generous gift of life parents offer a child are indeed spiritual under-takings and cannot be done alone. May the God of Love be with you and your work. Susan

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

545. Nov. 4: "Dear God, I'm American. What are you?" (Robert, age 5) Sometimes we try to make God fit our own notion of patriotism. It's fine to be proud of one's country, but God is bigger than any one nationality and loves all people, even those we love to hate. Do you and your beloved ever disagree about politics? Vote with respect for the other this Tuesday.

546. Nov. 11: Do you really believe in the resurrection of the dead as Jesus proclaimed in Luke 20:38? Even if you and your beloved are still young, have you talked about your deaths? Consider both practical issues like medical/funeral decisions and faith issues. Do you believe in an afterlife?

547. Nov. 18: Choose a virtue to practice today. Don't tell anybody what it is but consider charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, or generosity. At the end of the day, ask your spouse or child if they can guess which one you picked.

548. Nov. 25: Thanksgiving and Christmas are traditionally times when adult children return home and blended families regather in unique and complicated ways. This can be both joyous and stressful as family systems reshuffle. Don't let the holidays be a battlefield. If your family is perfect, work on letting go of pride.

PARENTING POINTERS

545. Nov. 8: November is National Adoption Month. Adopting a child is a huge life changing decision - usually one that enriches the whole family. Discern whether it is right for your family. If not, perhaps being a short term foster parent or mentoring or tutoring a child would work. Think about it.

546. Nov. 15: Ian (age 3) was drinking some milk when he got the hiccups. He said, "Please don't give me this milk again. It makes my teeth cough." Sometimes our kids say the cutest things. What's a silly thing your own child has said? Thank God for the humor they bring to your life.

547. Nov. 22: Prepare your child for Thanksgiving by pointing out little things this next week that are unexpected treasures. Thank God for a day without rain, colored leaves, a parking spot, I didn't get sick today, I have eyes to see you...

548. Nov. 29: (Thanksgiving) This is the day that many people shop for Christmas bargains. Your children are your biggest bargain. Spend time with them today. Play games together.
