NEW DIOCESAN STAFF MEMBER

Fr. Thom Hennen joins the diocesan staff August 1 as Vocations Director. Fr. Thom can be reached at hennen@davenportdiocese.org or 563-888-4255. Welcome!

BISHOP'S OFFICE

The public is invited to attend a special Sunday liturgy and reception on Sept. 4, 2011 at 3 p.m. at Sacred Heart Cathedral which will be presided by newly ordained Bishop Robert Gruss.

MSGR. JOHN HYLAND, VICAR GENERAL

Annual Parish Corporate Board Meeting: Please forward this announcement to your lay directors if they do not have an email address. This meeting will be held on Sunday, August 28, 2 p.m. at St. Mary, Riverside. A "make-up" meeting will be held on Tuesday, August 30, 7 p.m., at St. Mary, Riverside. All pastors and lay directors (trustees) need to attend either one. A question that was brought to my attention: "If one of my trustees cannot attend on Sunday with me and our other trustee, can my other trustee attend on Tuesday night?" The answer is yes.

HOSPITALITY & CHANGE WORKSHOPS COMING

On Sunday, November 20 Dr. Richard McCorry will present two workshops, Christian Hospitality (1-4 p.m.) and Spirituality in a Time of Change (5-8 p.m.) at St. Patrick Church, Iowa, City. These workshops are open to all interested persons. Dr. McCorry, the founder of the Center for Parish Hospitality, has worked with parishes and dioceses across the country for the past decade helping them to bring about and adapt to the changes going on in the church today. Additional information will be available at a later date.

LITURGY OFFICE

50th Wedding Anniversary Celebration Mass: At the request of Bishop Amos, there will be a diocesan celebration for all couples who are celebrating fifty years of marriage this year. A Mass and informal reception will be held at St. Mary Church in Pella on Sunday, October 9 at 2 p.m. Contact your parish to confirm that they have submitted your names and address. Invitations will be sent in September. (Parishes received an email from Barb Butterworth, butterworthb@davenportdiocese.org on July 26 which provided the necessary information about how to submit couple's names and addresses.)

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

To report child abuse contact: Iowa Department of Human Services Child Abuse Hotline: 800-362-2178 and if it involves clergy or church personnel also notify Alicia Owens, Victim Assistance Coordinator, 563-349-5002, or mail to vacdav@attglobal.net or PO Box 232, Bettendorf, IA 52722-0004.

VOCATIONS OFFICE

Holy Hours of Prayer for Vocations have started across the diocese. You are invited and encouraged to come and pray for the gift of vocations. The schedule follows:

- August 1: Sacred Heart Cathedral (Davenport), 7 PM
- August 3: Our Lady of the River (LeClaire), 6:30 PM
- September 28: St. Mary (Pella), 6 PM
- October 10: Jesus Christ, Prince of Peace (Clinton ~ Sacred Heart Chapel), 10 AM

Please pray for the success of these Holy Hours. If a local parish is hosting a Holy Hour, please advertise it in your parish bulletin or newsletter using this announcement:

“And how can they hear without someone to preach?” YOU are invited to join together and pray with other Catholics throughout the Diocese of Davenport in asking our Lord to bless our diocese with an abundance of vocations. Come and pray that many more will follow the Lord’s call to preach the Word of God and celebrate the Sacraments. Without YOU, this might not be possible. A Holy Hour to pray for vocations will take place on (please insert day/date) at (please insert parish/church and town) starting at (please put time in here). In the words of Pope Benedict: “Do not be afraid to give your life to Christ! Nothing will ever replace the ministry of priests at the heart of the Church! Nothing will ever replace a Mass for the salvation of the world! Dear young and not so young who are listening to me, do not leave Christ's call unanswered.” Plan to attend with your children and friends.

The ordination of Anastacio Ponce to the Diaconate will be on Saturday, August 20 at St. Mary of the Visitation Parish in Ottumwa starting at 10 AM. Please keep Anastacio and all of our seminarians in your prayers. May the Lord bless our diocese with many more vocations. Don’t forget to pray every day for this precious and valuable gift.

PASTORAL SERVICES

Social Action . . .

The Diocesan Immigration Office has begun making site visits to Ottumwa on the first Tuesday of each month by appointment only from 12:00 - 2:00 p.m. and to Columbus Junction the second Wednesday of each month by appointment only from 9:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. For more information regarding the site visits please contact the office at 563-324-1911.

2011 Respect Life Materials: For those who ordered parish packets they will be mailed directly to the parish the end of August or early September. If your parish missed the notice to order, a few extras are available on a first-come-first-served basis. To order contact Esmeralda Guerrero, 563-888-4210 or guerrero@davenportdiocese.org. Soon material will be available at the USCCB Respect Life Program website, <http://www.usccb.org/prolife/programs/rlp/index.shtml>.

Advocacy Team Meeting: With the assistance of Catholic Relief Services, a diocesan Advocacy Team is forming. Meetings are the last Wednesday of each month at 5:30 p.m. at St. Patrick Parish, Iowa City. The next meeting is August 31. We will be working on ways to:

- Strengthen the relationship between the local diocese, parishes and CRS.
- Provide leadership development training that will increase the effectiveness of the Catholic Advocacy efforts locally, nationally and globally.
- Engage local Catholic communities in a way that will result in more Catholics living their faith in solidarity with the poor around the world.

All interested persons are invited to be a part of this new effort. For more information contact Loxi Hopkins 563-888-4212 or hopkins@davenportdiocese.org or go to <http://www.davenportdiocese.org/socialaction/index.htm>.

“Faith in a Changing Climate”: Sept. 1, West Des Moines, 10 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. Join people of faith from across Iowa to learn what is happening to the Earth’s climate; address issues of Climate Justice; and discern ways that we can make a difference as individuals and congregations in this issue which impacts each one of us. Sponsored by Iowa Interfaith Power & Light. See the attached flyer for additional information.

CCHD Grant Application Acceptance Extended: The CCHD Board did not receive any grant requests that met CCHD criteria, so no grants were distributed at its June meeting. Therefore, the Board will be accepting grant requests to review at its October meeting. All grant requests must be postmarked by Sept. 30. The application process can be found at <http://www.davenportdiocese.org/socialaction/sacchd.htm>. Scroll down the page to find the Grant Criteria and CCHD Grant Agreement. The Grant Agreement must be completed and submitted with the grant request to be considered a complete application. For questions contact the diocesan CCHD Director, Loxi Hopkins at 563-324-1911 or hopkins@davenportdiocese.org.

The 18th Annual Iowa Institute for Social Action will be held on Saturday, October 8 at St. Patrick Church, Iowa City. Our institute presentation for this year is: Respect for Life and Dignity of the Human Person: Basis of All Social Concerns. The keynote speaker will be Mrs. Helene E. Paharik, MA, Director of the Dept. of Human Dignity of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Information and registration is at <http://iowasocialaction.org/>.

St. Vincent Home Corporation Grant: For consideration at the fall board meeting, all applications must be postmarked by October 15. To be consistent with its purpose, the St. Vincent Home Corporation will focus on those projects that assist children who are in the greatest need. Projects that address children in general should explain the extent to which the project also supports children who have special needs, such as poverty, family breakdown or other disadvantage. Applicants are to be located within the 22 counties of the Diocese of Davenport or serve children within the Diocese of Davenport. The grant application and grant criteria are available at the diocesan website, <http://www.davenportdiocese.org/socialaction/sastvincenthomecorporation.htm>. For questions call the Office of Social Action, 563-888-4210.

Msgr. Marvin Mottet to receive Roundtable Servant of Justice Award. The Roundtable Association of Catholic Diocesan Social Action Directors has announced Msgr. Marvin Mottet, a priest of our diocese, as the 2012 recipient of this annual award. Msgr. is honored because of his exemplary contributions to the achievement of the Catholic vision of social justice. Mary Bea Snyder, CHM

Fee: $15.00—includes lunch

This day is designed for persons approaching, or experiencing, the autumn time of life. An opportunity to come together to share the newness of retirement, the struggles with letting go, the search for who I am now (identity), the anticipation of closer relationships with family, friends, God. Through the story, “A Time for Leaving,” participants will engage in reflection and shared conversation of their own struggles, joys, fears, expectations in their autumn time.

Target Audience: Those 50 years and older

Sr. Mary Bea Snyder, CHM, has been an elementary school teacher, principal and director of religious education. She has journeyed with the homeless, mentally ill and addicts. After living in Colorado Springs for 27 years, Bea returned to Davenport in 2003 and is currently director of Humility of Mary Center where she journeys with the retired sisters of her community.

FINDING HOLINESS IN MARRIAGE

Saturday, September 10, 9:30 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Bishop Joseph Charron, C.P.P.S

Fee: $15.00—includes lunch

Vatican II highlighted the “universal call to holiness.” This day of reflection will examine that call as it presents itself in daily married life, with an emphasis on prayer.

Target Audience: Married couples

Precious Blood Bishop Joseph Charron was ordained to the priesthood in 1967, studied in Rome and received a doctoral degree in moral theology. He taught at St. John’s School of Theology in Collegeville, Minnesota, and served as assistant and associate general secretary of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops before being elected provincial of the Kansas City Precious Blood Province in 1979. He became auxiliary bishop of the St. Paul/Minneapolis archdiocese in 1990 and bishop of the Des Moines diocese in 1994. He retired in 2007 due to ill health, and now enjoys doing retreats and missions. He lives in West Des Moines, Iowa.

PIECING PEACEFULLY

Wednesday, September 14, 9:30 a.m.– 3:30 p.m.

Garry and Donna Lanman

Fee: $15.00—includes lunch

We will stimulate interest in quilting in the community by showing over thirty quilts and telling their stories, closing with a series of Lone Star quilts. We’ll talk about the role of quilts in the underground railroad and during the Civil War.

Target Audience: All quilters and those interested in the role quilting has played historically Garry Lanman founded and was pastor of a Quad-Cities church for 37 years. He began quilting when he retired in 1996. Donna Lanman is a homemaker, seamstress, and children’s Bible teacher who started quilting in 1991.

Wednesday, September 21, 9:30 a.m.– 3:30 p.m.

Judith A. Carrara, CHM

Fee: $15.00—lunch included

We will explore psychological, spiritual, and practical sides of caregiving for impaired older adults and address such questions as:

- How does my attitude toward aging and familial relationship affect my caregiving experience?
- How does caregiving provide opportunity for spiritual growth?
- What resources are available to the caregiver?
- What level of care can I assume?

Target Audience: Persons anticipating or having assumed caregiving responsibilities for an older adult, especially a parent, spouse, other relative or friend

Sr. Judith Carrara, CHM, has an MSW degree from the University of Wisconsin and has been professionally involved in planning and giving direct service to older adults for thirty years. For the last three years she was the primary caregiver for her mother who died recently at age 100.

Great Expectations

Coaching Parents to Form Their Own Children

Presented by the Diocese of Davenport: A Partnership that works for you and your families!

If the parents aren't involved, the child's faith will always be lukewarm

The task of passing on the faith to children belongs undeniably to their parents. In fact, no matter how hard we try at the parish to substitute ourselves for them, if the parents aren't involved, the child's faith will always be lukewarm.

In this workshop, we'll learn how to engage the parents by coaching them to form their own children. This process can be implemented in various ways, including Sacrament Prep, with your textbook series, or even for Confirmation Preparation.

Parents become engaged with parish life and faith

And their children receive formation that lasts a lifetime! You'll add this method to your entire parish Faith Formation or Catholic School program, to make a difference in the lives of parents and their children.

Formation that lasts a lifetime

"Our parish sees adults and children learning their faith together in many ways. It makes for stronger families and a more energetic and vibrant parish. Coaching is a great way to improve what we are already doing."

Msgr. Drake Shafer, pastor, St. Ann's in Long Grove, Iowa

Leisa Anslinger

will introduce us to the principles as well as the nuts and bolts of succeeding in coaching parents to form their own children. Participants will receive excellent free links to online support and follow-up.

Parish Leaders and School Leaders and Staff

Engaging people changes the lives of individuals and the life of the parish or school, drawing more to Christ or more deeply to Christ. Join us for an exciting day of learning, conversation with others and exploration of resources to support your ministry as you engage parents by partnering with them in the formation of their children.

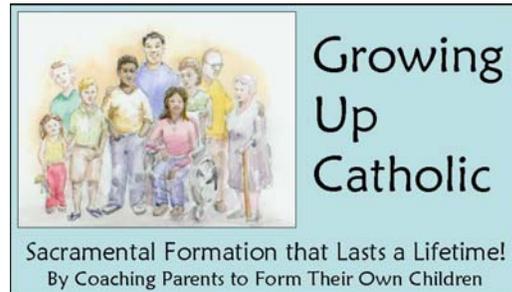

About Leisa Anslinger

Leisa Anslinger holds Masters Degrees from Purdue University and the Athenaeum of Ohio. She served as a parish leader of faith formation for many years and now serves as Director of Growing Up Catholic. In this capacity, Leisa continues her work of developing ways to re-engage Catholics with their faith and their parish. A frequent presenter at conferences and in-service days, Leisa speaks on topics of catechesis, pastoral leadership and stewardship.

She contributes regularly to ministerial publications and is the author of Here Comes Everybody! And co-author of Desires of the Heart and Forming Generous Hearts: Stewardship Planning for Lifelong Faith Formation.

Her most recent work with Growing Up Catholic: Sacramental Formation that Lasts a Lifetime is available from GrowingUpCatholic.com. It is a sacramental prep process in which we coach parents to form their own children, in the context of a parish event. (Y es disponible en español también).
