NEW OPTIONAL MEMORIAL: BLESSED POPE JOHN PAUL II

In the United States, October 22 is now designated as the Optional Memorial for Blessed Pope John Paul II. The proper liturgical texts are available on the Liturgy Events webpage, or by clicking on this direct link: <http://www.davenportdiocese.org/lit/liturgylibrary/Resources/litJPIItext.pdf>.

IS THE GLORIA OMITTED IF NOT SUNG?

If the Gloria is called for in the rubrics, it is not to be omitted. If not sung, it is recited.

THE YEAR OF FAITH: VATICAN II AND THE LITURGY

SACROSANCTUM CONCILIIUM – CHAPTER III

Chapter III of the Constitution covers the Sacraments other than Eucharist as well as the sacramentals of the Church. The chapter begins with the observation that sacraments not only presuppose faith, but “nourish, strengthen, and express it” (#59). Sacraments (and sacramentals) engage us through the senses: “There is hardly any proper use of material things which cannot thus be directed toward the sanctification of men and the praise of God” (#61).

This is not an insignificant statement; it is a reminder that for us as Catholics the world is not an evil place to be escaped – but space and time are where we encounter God.

This chapter calls for the revision of all the rites, but does not give detailed specifics; that work would be left to special commissions.

Of particular note in this section is the call to renew the ancient catechumenate (#64-66) – what we now call the RCIA, one of the greatest accomplishments of the Council and, unfortunately, one aspect of the Church’s vision for the renewed liturgy that has yet to be fully implemented in every parish.

VERBUM DOMINI – THE WORD OF GOD IN THE LIFE AND MISSION OF THE CHURCH

Part I: Verbum Dei (continued)

One of the key points in Verbum Domini is that God wants a dialogical relationship with us. Of course, this is not a dialogue of equals – primacy belongs to the word spoken by God to us. It is that word (revelation) that calls forth a response from us. What is that proper response? Faith (#23). Faith is much more than giving our assent to theological propositions. Faith begins with an encounter, a meeting made possible through the Holy Spirit. This encounter is transformative; we are different because of it. We are created anew. But such a relationship is not automatic; there remains “the tragic possibility that human freedom can withdraw from this covenant dialogue with God for which we were created” (#26). Such a stance of refusal to listen, refusal to obey (the word “obedience” at its root means to listen intently) is what we call sin. The exemplar of faithfully hearing the word of God and acting upon it in freedom is Mary, whom the document calls the “Mother of God’s Word” as well as “Mother of Faith” (#27).

Don't Forget - Music Workshop this Saturday (November 3)

Choir directors and members, accompanists, cantors, and anyone involved in music ministry are invited to a workshop on Saturday, November 3, from 9am to 12 noon at St. Patrick Church in Iowa City. For the first hour, the workshop will focus on selecting music for the liturgy in a hands-on format. Doors open at 8:30 a.m. We look forward to seeing (and hearing) you there!

THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The Precatechumenate and Catechumenate

As the name implies, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is marked by the liturgical celebration of the journey towards full initiation through the Easter Sacraments. Most RCIA teams are well aware that the transition from the Precatechumenate to the Catechumenate is celebrated through the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens (RCIA §§ 41-74), and that the transition from Catechumen to one of the Elect is celebrated in the Rite of Election, preceded by the Rite of Sending (§§ 106-117). There are analogous celebrations for those baptized in other Christian communities who are journeying to full communion (§§ 411-458).

During the Catechumenate (see §§ 75-80 for introduction), a number of other rites are available for those not baptized that you may want to use. A number of these may be celebrated by the catechist rather than requiring an ordained minister; please see the texts in question for details.

- Celebrations of the Word of God (§§81-89)
- Minor Exorcisms (§§ 90-94)
- Blessing of Catechumens (§§ 95-97)
- Anointing of Catechumens (§§ 98-103).

In addition, the Presentation of the Creed and Lord's Prayer may be celebrated during this time if necessary (§§ 104-5).

LITURGY PREPARATION

LITURGICAL CALENDAR

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity: January 18-25

During this week, the whole Christian community throughout the world is invited to pray in communion with the prayer of Jesus “that they all may be one” (John 17:21). The theme for this year’s Week of Prayer is “What does God require of us?” (cf. Micah 6:6-8). For more information and for resources, please go to <http://www.geii.org/>.

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children: Tuesday, January 22

January 22 has been designated by the U.S. Bishops as a particular day of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion, and of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life.

In the third edition of the Roman Missal, two options are given from the Masses for Various Needs and Occasions: (1) For Giving Thanks to God for the Gift of Human Life (#48/1; white vestments) or (2) For the Preservation of Peace and Justice (#30; with violet vestments).

Resources for observing this day can be found on the USCCB website:
<http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/>.

Please consider using the following (from Archbishop Thomas Collins of Toronto) as part of your Prayer of the Faithful, as appropriate:

“That the scourge of abortion be lifted from our land, that those who promote it may be brought to a change of heart, that all who are tempted to abortion may be lovingly helped to protect the precious gift of life, and that all who have experienced an abortion may be comforted with the healing gift of love.”
