CALENDAR ADVISORIES FOR 2009:December 8, 2008: Immaculate Conception:

This year, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception falls on a Monday. Because this is our national patronal feast day, the day remains a holy day of obligation. Ritual Masses (weddings, funerals, confirmation) are not allowed. Weddings and funerals may be celebrated outside of Mass. If a wedding is celebrated within Mass, then only the prayers and readings of the holy day are to be used (no substitution is allowed; see the Rite of Marriage #11). The Mass on Sunday evening may be either the Mass of Sunday or the Mass of the Immaculate Conception, as long as the people are clearly informed ahead of time which it will be.

January 22, 2009: Day of Penance

January 22 has been designated by the U.S. Bishops as a “particular day of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion, and of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life.” The Mass “For Peace and Justice,” (#22) from “Masses for Various Needs and Occasions,” may be celebrated and violet vestments may be worn (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, #373).

January 25, 2009: Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul

In observance of the Year of St. Paul, Pope Benedict XVI has granted permission to observe the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul on Sunday this year; normally this feast would not be observed when it falls on a Sunday. Parishes may celebrate the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time or they may observe the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul with its proper texts from the Roman Missal (using the Preface of Apostles I or II) and the Lectionary for Mass (no. 519). In addition, the recitation of the Creed is included, and because there are only two readings provided in the Lectionary for Mass, the second Reading of the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is used.

June 29, 2009: Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul

The special observance of the Year of St. Paul concludes with this celebration. The Roman Missal contains proper prayers for both a Vigil Mass and a Mass During the Day, as well as a Preface (Peter and Paul, P 63). The Lectionary for Mass provides readings for both the Vigil Mass (no. 590) and the Mass During the Day (no. 591). Evening Prayer I for the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul is celebrated on Sunday evening.

August 15, 2009: Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

When the Solemnity of the Assumption falls on a Saturday, the obligation to attend Mass is abrogated. Ritual Masses are still prohibited, but Funeral Masses may be celebrated. Marriages may be celebrated outside of Mass, or the Mass of the Day may be used with the nuptial blessing and one reading taken from the Rite of Marriage.

November 15, 2009: Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral

The anniversary is celebrated as a Solemnity in the Cathedral itself; therefore, it would replace the observation of the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The anniversary is celebrated as a Feast in the rest of the diocese. Therefore, since the Sunday ranks higher in the Table of Precedence (see below), the Feast is transferred to Monday, November 16.

A NOTE ON PARTICULAR CALENDARS

Please refer to the “Table of Liturgical Days According to Their Order of Precedence” (reproduced on page 4) and the Norms Governing Liturgical Calendars for details.

Parishes are also reminded that the Anniversary of Dedication of their church and the title of their church are celebrated as Solemnities for that community. Because these outrank Sundays in Ordinary Time, those celebrations can be moved to the Sunday of the week they fall in as long as we are in Ordinary Time (Norms Governing Liturgical Calendars, § 58).

The feast of the principal patron of the diocese and the anniversary of the dedication of the cathedral are also to be observed. For the Diocese of Davenport, the Feast of the Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral is observed on November 15 (of course, at the Cathedral itself it is observed as a Solemnity). Since the Feast falls on a Sunday this year, it is transferred to the Monday (16th) for all in the diocese except the Cathedral. The diocese has no patron.

In addition, the Ceremonial of Bishops states that the anniversary of the bishop’s episcopal ordination should be celebrated in each church. The Mass for Various Needs and Occasions, I. For the Church, 3. For the Bishop is used – except on days listed in #’s 1-6 on the Table (§ 1167). Bishop Amos’s anniversary of episcopal ordination is June 7. However, because this falls on a Sunday this year, observance of this feast is transferred to the Monday (8th).

The Ceremonial also states that each year the anniversary of the last deceased bishop be observed, unless he had been transferred to another diocese (§ 1168). In our case, that would be Bishop O’Keefe, whose anniversary of episcopal ordination is July 2.

A NOTE ON THE OBLIGATION TO ASSIST AT MASS ON SUNDAYS AND HOLY DAYS

The obligation to attend Mass applies to the day, not the Mass being celebrated or the texts used. For Sundays and Solemnities, the liturgical day runs from 4:00 p.m. of the calendar day before to midnight of the day itself – a period of 32 hours.

For example, on a weekend when Ritual Masses are allowed, attendance at a Wedding Mass after 4pm on Saturday would fulfill the Sunday obligation. Likewise, if a parish celebrated the Ritual Mass of Confirmation on Sunday, the obligation would be fulfilled.

On the rare occasion that a Holy Day of obligation falls on a Monday (as happens this year with the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception), the obligation for the Holy Day is fulfilled by attending Mass from 4 p.m. on Sunday through 12 midnight at the end of Monday while the Sunday obligation is met by attending Mass between 4 p.m. on Saturday and midnight at the end of Sunday. Therefore, if one attended Mass between 4 p.m. and midnight on Sunday, the time of overlap, the obligation for both days would be met.
